

Philosophy Pre-Law

3+3 B.A./J.D. Program

B.A. & J.D. in Just 6 Years!

Year 1 – 3 B.A. Year 1 – 3

12 courses / 36 credit hours
Students enrolled in the accelerated program will complete 12 Philosophy courses (36 credit hours) to fulfill major requirements for the BA Philosophy Pre-Law Concentration.

Year 3 B.A. Year 3

Continue B.A. Courses & Take the LSAT

Year 4 B.A. Year 4 / J.D. Year 1

Final B.A. Courses & Begin J.D. Courses
Graduate with B.A. Degree!

Year 5 – 6 J.D. Year 2 – 3

Complete remaining requirements for the J.D.
Graduate with J.D.!

Philosophy Prepares Best

Law schools prefer students who can think, read, and write well, and who have some understanding of what shapes human experience.

- Law School Admission Council

"Classes that stress research & writing are excellent preparation for law school, as are courses that teach reasoning and analytical skills. Classes that help you understand the complex relationships that motivate legal decision-making can be both fascinating and useful..."

- American Bar Association

Philosophers Score Highest

@undphilosophy

Find us online

